"August Flower"

Mr. Lorenzo F. Sleeper is very well known to the citizens of Appleton, Me., and neighborhood. He says: "Eight years ago I was taken sick, and suffered as no one but a dyspeptic can. I then began taking August Flower. At that time I was a great sufferer. Everything I ate distressed me so that I had to throw it up. Then in a few moments that horrid distress would come on and I would have to eat and suffer again. I took a little of your medicine, and felt much better, and after taking a little more August Flower my dyspepsia disappeared, and since that time I have never had the first sign of it. I can eat anything without the least fear of distress. I wish all that are afflicted with that terrible disease or the troubles caused by it would try August Flower, as I am satisfied there is no medicine equal to it."

In a new bicycle tire the wheels, instead of being fitted with pneumatic or cushion tires, have the grooves fitted with complete cycles of balls, which revolve on pivots fixed in the groove of the wheels. These balls bite the ground, and the machine travels up and down hill with wonderful celerity.

Over One Hundred and Fifty Years Old.
A man resides at David, in the province of Chiriqui, Isthmus of Panama, who is one hundred and fifty-one years old, according to his own statement, but his neighbors claim that he is older, and that a document is in existence which he signed 142 years ago. He works hard every day on his coffee plantation, and is in excellent health.—Philadelphia Ledger

Swimming is a tonic and bracing exercise. It assists in the development of the muscular system, and exerts a favorable influence on the bodily functions, such as digestion, nutrition, respiration, circulation and innervation. It is excellent in getting the body, in what sporting men call "condition." Aside from the physical advantages, swimming gives moral courage.

The frequently quoted "I do not pin my faith upon your sleeve," is traced in sentiment to feudal times, when the partisans of a leader used to wear his badge pinned upon their sleeves. Sometimes these badges were changed for specific purposes, and persons learned to doubt, hence the phrase, "You wear the badge, but I do not intend to pin my faith on your sleeve."

The largest regular orchestra in the world is to be found in the Grand Opera house, of Paris, with 170 performers. The New York Grand Opera follows closely with one of 162.

Headache.
We are often asked for a cure for headache. A certain wise physician classes headaches among the ailments which have baffled his profession. At a medical meeting a member said: "Did any of you ever cure a headache? I never did." Several doctors having mentioned their treatment, he replied: "Oh, you only relieved it. I can do that. But have you ever cured it?"

No one could answer yes. The shops contain nostrums enough, but did any one ever find himself more than temporarily relieved by them?
Nature, unaided, sometimes effects a permanent cure by the changes which the system undergoes in the process of time. Persons who have been subject to headache are often more or less fully relieved after about the age of fifty. This is perhaps a result of the shrinkage of the brain and the hardening of the tissues, which begins at about that period. Changes in one's condition or habits, or in climate, may sometimes effect a cure by removing the disturbing cause.—Youth's Companion.

He Regretted It.

McKINLEY AND THE SILVER QUESTION.

Major McKinley formally opened the Ohio campaign at Miles last Saturday. His address was elaborate and doubtless carefully studied. He said it is fortunate that the issues involved in the campaign are clearly defined that no misunderstanding or evasion can arise. On the silver question he expressed himself as follows:

"The Democratic platform declares for free and unlimited coinage of the silver of the world. The Republican platform stands in opposition to anything short of a complete dollar, and approves the legislation of the last Congress, which is a mighty bulwark for the protection of silver. The free coinage demanded by the Democratic platform means that all the silver of the world can be brought to the Mints of the United States and coined at the expense of the Government; that the United States Mints must receive 412 1/2 grains of silver, worth 80 cents; the world over, and coin therefor a silver dollar, which by the fiat of the Government, is to circulate among the people as a full dollar. It does not take a very wise man to see that this short dollar will become in time the exclusive circulating medium of the country. Gold will be taken from the circulation of the country and hoarded, and the effect will be that the circulating medium will be reduced to the extent of the gold now circulating, and we will be compelled to do the business of the country with the silver dollar exclusively. We have not been able to secure an international ratio, which all the nations of the world would adopt, and with the free coinage of silver the United States will be still further removed from an international agreement. The nations which are on a silver basis alone are the poorest nations of the world and are in constant financial disturbance and momentary disorder. Under the present condition the country cannot afford to chance it. If there is to be any profit in the coinage of silver it should go to the Government, as it has been ever since the Bland-Allison Act. This new declaration would give a profit to silver producers, and no class of people would suffer so much from the 80-cent dollar as the wage-earner and the agriculturist.

"I am in favor of a double-standard, but not of free and unlimited coinage, until the nations of the world join us in guaranteeing free silver, a status which their laws now accord to gold."

Unlike many of the newspapers and politicians of Nevada, which talk free coinage and vote against it, Major McKinley is outspoken on the subject and emphatically declares that free coinage is one of the issues of the campaign and that he and the platform on which he was nominated, are against it. He believes the profits on silver coinage should go to the Government instead of to the silver producer, and says that the free coinage demanded by the Democratic platform means that all the silver of the world can be brought to the United States Mints and coined at the expense of the Government.

Major McKinley displays unpardonable ignorance on the silver question. He ought to know, what every schoolboy in Nevada is taught, that there are only 371 1/4 grains of silver in a standard dollar, and that the Government, during the eighty-two years, from 1791 to 1873 in which the coinage of gold and silver was free at the Mints, paid itself for stamping coins by putting ten per cent. alloy in them, and the United States could well afford to coin all of those metals in the world on such terms.

For a person who sought notoriety by opposing everything foreign and adopting the old Chinese policy of exclusiveness Major McKinley betrays a decided predilection for European ideas on the silver question. He does not hesitate to rake the Treasury to give a bounty to Louisiana sugar planters and Vermont sap boilers, nor does he object to taxing the people to keep up a tin-plate monopoly, but he draws the line at silver and is opposed to the miners deriving any profit from the coinage of their product.

If Stewart and Jones of Nevada, and Teller and Wolcott of Colorado, have the courage of their convictions, and place free coinage and prosperity above party success, they should enlighten the people of Ohio on the silver question, and do what they can to defeat McKinley and his gold bug principles.

A "brainless blunder" is what the Chicago Tribune, the leading Republican paper of the Northwest, terms the wool schedule of the McKinley bill. The blunder cost wool growers from two to four cents per pound this year, wool being that much lower than it was a year ago.

The business portion of Sheridan, California, was burned Sunday night. Only two buildings were insured. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a lamp explosion.

THE PLAGE PARK DISASTER.

Three Hundred and Forty Persons Perish in the Hurricane-A Mine Disaster-An Attempt to Wreck a Train.

Recovering Bodies From the Ruins.

New York, August 24.—The work of delving for the dead in the ruins of Park Place continued throughout the night, during which five bodies were found, making a total of 74 victims of the awful explosion.

At the morgue there is a constant stream looking for their friends or relatives among the dead. A sickening odor from the burnt bodies pervades the atmosphere. It is now thought that the faulty construction of the building was the cause of the accident.

By noon two more bodies were found. So far only the edge of the ruins have been searched. The firemen believe that at least fifty bodies are still under the debris. It is thought by to-morrow afternoon all the bodies will be recovered.

Six more bodies were found in the ruins at 3 o'clock, five of which were women or girls and one that of a boy. Three were identified by friends.

District Attorney Nichols is considering the question of indicting the person or persons responsible for the disaster. After a long consultation with his chief assistant, ex-Judge Bedford, he placed the case in the hands of Assistant District Attorney Townsend.

By six o'clock two more bodies were recovered. The odor of decomposing flesh that arises from the ruins is becoming unbearable and disinfectants seem to produce but little effect. City Chamberlain Train, whose mother owned the wrecked building, said to-day regarding its construction: "It was built in 1872 and was acquired by his mother in 1887. I have always understood that it was well constructed and was never condemned, nor was it considered unsafe.

Regarding the claim that the stock of merrill and heavy presses on the upper floor caused it to collapse, there is nothing in it, for it has always been used for the same purpose it was used for at the time of the fire. From what I have been able to learn, the cause of the accident was fire followed by an explosion. A man who has been engaged for 35 years in placing printing machinery in position said to-day the press of Elys & McDonald and Liebler & Mias were so placed that the vibration was on the beams and rafters and that the eight-inch resting place was insufficient to support the enormous weight on it. On the third floor alone, he said, stood nearly forty tons of machinery."

Louis Rosenfeld, proprietor of the paint store, at seventy Park Place, has been missing since the disaster, and relatives think the fearful scenes he witnessed after the crash came unsettled his mind and he strayed away. They have so reported to the police.

China News.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 24.—China papers print a report to the effect that the son of the present Chinese Minister to England, France and Italy has been arrested on a charge of being a prominent member of a secret society and is to be tried for that offense.

Floods at Toyama, Japan, damaged nearly 9,000 houses.

A letter was received at the Chinese Consulate at Kobe last month threatening the life of Admiral Ting of the Chinese fleet, which was then in Japanese waters. A body guard of Japanese police was appointed and attended the Admiral during his stay at Kobe.

As a result of the storm in Nagasaki Ken on July 21st, eleven persons were killed and much damage was done. At Ashiga a number of foreign vessels were carried away and the crews are missing. The embankment of the Odga river gave way and over a hundred houses were carried away. The loss of life has not been ascertained. Much damage has been done in other provinces.

British Consul Gardner is stated not to have been satisfied with the perfunctory trial of the Wanchu rioters, and remonstrated so effectively that Viceroy Chang Chi Tung ordered that the cases be reopened. The Chinese customs officials of Chinkiang, arrested six men charged with being members of the Kolas Hui secret society, which, it is said, fomented the present trouble, and they were held for trial. The Constable of the native courts was arrested by order of the Viceroy, but was promised pardon for giving evidence against the others.

Advices from Tientsin to July 15 report all quiet in that vicinity.

The Wanchow authorities have captured eleven of the pirates who created the disturbance near there recently.

A typhoon which passed near Hong Kong doing much damage, caused the gunboat Tweed to break from its moorings and sink in the deep water, proving, it is said, a total loss.

Japanese advices report the death of Viscount Yoshida, formerly Minister to the United States. It is announced that the Emperor is about to issue a proclamation annexing to Japan three volcanic islands in the Pacific ocean four degrees south of the Loo Choo islands. They are said to be well adapted for Japanese colonies.

A large increase of the Japanese fleet to make it as strong as China's navy, is being urged in some quarters.

An Attempt to Wreck a Train. Special to the Journal.

MEMPHIS, August 24.—An attempt to wreck a train on the Illinois Central main line yesterday by fastening a piece of iron on the rail at the bridge near Hilly Springs. Two negroes were seen sneaking from the vicinity, by the engineer of the passenger train which narrowly escaped being wrecked. A posse scoured an accurate description of the negroes, and after a chase of several hours caught them. They were separate, and each said enough to implicate the other. They afterwards confessed that they intended to wreck the train for the purpose of robbery.

Two Ladies Killed and Two Children Seriously Injured. Special to the Journal.

PENDLETON, Or., August 24.—Peter Techkella, his wife and three children were out driving last evening four miles from Pendleton when the horse became unruly and commenced to back. Techkella was unable to stop the animal, and the horse, wagon and five occupants fell over the cliff, twenty-five feet high. Mrs. Techkella and one daughter were instantly killed and two other children seriously injured. Techkella and the horse escaped with a few bruises.

Will Secure his Return. Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, August 24.—At the request of the British Minister, an order for the deportation to China of Quong Sam, convicted of illegal entrance into the United States from Canada, has been suspended. Quong claims to be a resident of Canada, and the British authorities are endeavoring to secure his return to that country.

The Insurgents Repulsed. Special to the Journal.

LIMA, August 24.—A Valparaiso telegram reports that Balmaeda's army at Vias del Marer has repulsed the insurgents, but the report is not confirmed. The telegram adds that Balmaeda has ordered four thousand troops stationed at Cognimbo to proceed against Iquique.

A Mine Explosion. Special to the Journal.

CARDIFF, August 24.—An explosion took place to-day at the colliery near Merthyr Tydvil, Wales. Two persons were suffocated in the mines. There was no further loss of life and nobody reported missing.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

Hon. O. H. Grey, Secretary of State, returned yesterday from a visit to California.

R. Richards and W. F. Brundridge will commence threshing next Thursday. See notice.

Erasmus Gest, Manager of the N. C. & O. railway, returned yesterday from San Francisco.

Hon. Ross Lewers of Franktown visited Reno yesterday. He says crops look well down his way.

Beebe & Thomas have assigned their stock and accounts to Folson & Wells. See notice elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

Miss Edith Gowell came in from Quincy Saturday, and after spending Sunday with friends in this city continued on to her home in Oakland.

Remember the fan party to be given by the Reno Guards next Friday. They always give pleasant parties, which are always largely attended.

Joseph Odett of Pyramid visited Reno yesterday. He says the probabilities are that they will have a weekly stage running through that part of the country soon from Reno to Surprise Valley.

A limb was broken off a plum tree of the green gege variety in John Bowman's garden yesterday. It measures thirty-three inches in length, and it bears 180 plums, all well developed, but not ripe. That is about as prolific a branch as a person could expect to find in any country.

The next session of the Supreme Grand Lodge, of A. O. U. W., will be held at Helena, Montana, next June. Northern railroads agree to give delegates low rates, and Helena was, therefore, enabled to offer better inducements to delegates than any other city west of the Rocky Mountains.

A number of representatives from the various subordinate lodges of the A. O. U. W. to the Grand Lodge at Ogden returned Sunday night. They say the next session of the Grand Lodge of Nevada, which embraces Utah, Idaho, Nevada and Wyoming, will be held at Salt Lake City next August.

J. B. Caine and J. J. Quinn, who represented Nevada Lodge No. 5, A. O. U. W., at the Grand Lodge at Ogden, returned Sunday evening. Mr. Caine says Ogden is very much excited over the big lead mines discovered near that city. It is said to be a mountain of lead carrying a small percentage of silver.

J. W. Pollard was taken to the Insane Asylum Sunday night by Deputy Sheriff Nofsinger, of Humboldt county. "Doc," Pollard, as he is generally called, is about eighty years of age, and, until the last few years, could read without spectacles. He came to this Coast in 1849 and to Nevada about twenty-seven years ago.

A quadruple-decked car, loaded with ducks and chickens, passed through yesterday attached to a freight train bound for California. The fowls were from Missouri, where chicken feed is as high as it is in California. The Golden State evidently believes in reciprocity, and exchanges oranges and other fruits with Missourians or ducks and chickens.

An extra issued by the Lassen Advocate says that a shooting affray occurred at the Dan McKisick station on the Amadee and Surprise Valley road between James Armstrong of Susanville and Amos R. Blake, in which both were wounded. Armstrong is thought to be dangerously and Blake seriously hurt.

LOVELOCKS.

A Thriving Farming Community and Abundance of Rich Land.

The Big Meadows, near the Sink of Humboldt, about three hours' ride from Reno, presents a very attractive appearance at present. The valley, of which the village of Lovelocks is about the center, contains about 100,000 acres of as rich soil as can be found in any other. The soil is alluvial, formed by the wash of the Humboldt river, which has evidently changed its course within the last two or three hundred years or perhaps later. Thousands of acres of land, which undoubtedly at one time formed the bed of the lake, is made of black mold and decayed roots of tules and other plants that once grew in the water. The soil is from two to twenty feet deep, and only requires cultivation and moisture to make it is productive as any on the coast.

ABUNDANT CROPS.

The writer visited the Big Meadows recently, and in the few hours at his disposal visited the ranches of Bonfield & Hill, John O'Kane, W. C. Pitt, Tiff Haukine, Robert Welch and J. H. Thies, which are only a very few of the many large and productive farms in the immediate vicinity of Lovelocks. On each and all these farms, some of which have just been reclaimed from the desert, are immense alfalfa and wheat fields. Alfalfa produces from four to seven tons of hay to the acre in ordinary seasons, and the wheat fields from thirty-five bushels on volunteer ground to fifty or more bushels on fields sown last Spring. The greater part of the wheat has been harvested, but late sown grain is yet standing, though ready for the header. In some fields, where water was used too freely late in the season, the grain is lodged and rusted, being affected exactly the same as wheat on rich soil in the Mississippi Valley is by heavy rains late in June. Potatoes and other kinds of vegetables grow abundantly in the valley, and are of superior quality, but the climate and soil are peculiarly adapted to the GROWTH OF ALFALFA.

Of which the second crop of this season is now being harvested. The mowers out the grass about three or four days ahead of the stackers. It retains a bright green color in the stack, and as is generally known on this coast, makes the finest feed for milch cows, and cannot be excelled for fattening beef and mutton. Hogs also do well in winter time on alfalfa hay and thrive on alfalfa pasturage in summer. At present, in consequence of the scarcity of cattle on the range, the supply of alfalfa is in excess of the home demand, and ten or a dozen cars are loaded daily with it for San Francisco, where it finds ready sale, the price at present being about $12 per ton. The cost of transporting the hay to San Francisco is $3 per ton, but it has to be baled for shipment at a cost of about $2 50 per ton. Assuming that the average yield is five tons per acre, the Railroad Company receives $15 from the product of every acre of alfalfa shipped to California.

AREA UNDER CULTIVATION.

Of the 100,000 or more acres susceptible of cultivation on the Big Meadows, provided water can be secured by storage or otherwise for irrigating, less than one-tenth is now under cultivation. The largest ranches are owned by Captain J. Marzen and Marker Brothers, though there are several farmers, among them L. N. Carpenter, Andrew Westfall, Henry Fuss, John Reed, Peter Anker, C. Bastian, the Dauns and Larsens, west of Lovelocks, who cultivate from 100 to three times that number of acres. The grain crop this year is estimated at about 8,000 tons, four-fifths of which is wheat and the rest barley. The alfalfa crop is variously estimated at from 18,000 to 25,000 tons, and the potato crop of several hundred acres will yield largely.

A STEAM THRESHER.

John Hill, who is among the most successful farmers, has just received a Bronson-Pitt thresher of the largest capacity and the most approved separator, and a twenty-five-horse-power engine to run it. This immense machine threshes and cleans from sixty to seventy tons of grain daily. The fuel used is greasewood or straw, whichever is most convenient, and the grain, as it runs in a steady stream from the separator, is free from chaff, chert and extraneous matter and clean enough for seed. This machine, which is capable of threshing the whole crop of the valley in a few months, cost on the ground more than $4,000.

THE TOWN OF LOVELOCKS.

The village of Lovelocks, which was named for the pioneer, George Lovelock, contains several stores, three hotels and a proportionate number of saloons. It has a handsome depot, a good school-house and a fine hall. The latter is in the second story of S. R. Young's brick building, and would be a credit to more pretentious towns than Lovelocks. F. K. Reed, who is engaged in merchandizing, is building an addition to his store to accommodate his business. The village throughout bears evidence of prosperity, and the stores, hotels and saloons are all doing a lively business and seemed to be well patronized by the ranchers.

SOMETHING WRONG.

The writer noticed that the large stocks of flour in the principal stores bore the brands of California mills, and that the tons of hams and bacon had the brand of St. Louis, Chicago or Kansas City packers on the canvases which covered them. Inquiry, as to the cause, revealed the fact that owing to transportation regulations on the railroad, flour from California can be laid down cheaper than from Reno or Paradise Valley. It was also ascertained,

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

notwithstanding the fact that hogs will live on alfalfa both Summer and Winter, and that hogs fed on alfalfa during the Summer will make good pork if fed grain six weeks in the Fall, that nearly all the bacon and hams used by the farmers are imported. Evidently there is something radically wrong where a farming community, which exports grain and alfalfa to California, imports its flour from that State and its bacon from east of the Missouri. Farmers, you know that is not right, and you ought to endeavor to do better.
